Notice of Nondiscrimination

Regis University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, religion, veteran status, marital status, pregnancy, parental status, gender identity, sexual orientation, genetic information or any other legally protected status in any of its policies, programs, admissions or activities and provides equal access to education.

All Regis University community members (faculty, students, staff, administrators, trustees, contract personnel, agents, visitors, invitees, and volunteers) are prohibited by law from engaging in acts of discrimination, including sexual harassment or sexual violence. Regis University's nondiscrimination policy extends to employment, education and admission. Regis will take immediate and appropriate corrective action up to and including expulsion or dismissal, in cases where it has been determined that discrimination or sexual misconduct has occurred.
